Dear Parents

Your ward is a reservoir of potential which needs to be tapped and channelized in diverse ways. It is very important to fire her/his imagination and foster an outlook that helps her/him to explore, discover and rediscover. Summer Vacation is the best and fruitful time for learning and for nurturing creativity. It is the time when you can connect with your ward in many ways. The designed Holiday Homework will not only enhance achievements of your ward but also help to enhance family relationships. It will teach your ward to work independently and will improve her/his basic academic skills, such as reading, writing, and vocabulary. It also aims at enhancing the observation and critical thinking skills of your ward. Please encourage your ward to:

- converse in English with family members and friends.
- switch off the lights, fans, coolers, air conditioners, T.V. before leaving a room.
- keep a bowl of water in a shady area for birds.
- wish the elders every morning and before going to bed at night.
- learn to count till ten in her/ his mother tongue or any other language.

- listen/ read to storybooks under your supervision. Some suggested audio story links books are:
    1. <https://storyweaver.org.in/lists/22099-funny-stories-for-beginner-readers>
(Veeru goes to the circus)

    2. Toy Story 4
    3. Wonder Park
    4. Monster Family

Dear students,

Today is the time of technology; robots, auto bots, space tours and much more exciting stuff. So keeping with the times, let's continue with the practice of visiting at least a few places in Delhi during the summer vacation. We will not change our habit but change the way we do things. Here are the links for virtual tours to India Gate and Qutub Minar. Take a virtual visit and explore these tourist destinations and attempt the fun worksheets that follow.
