

Dear Principal

Rabindranath Tagore, is one of the most widely acclaimed wordsmiths of India. He was the harbinger of an era of literature that shaped Indian philosophy, thus elevating him to the stature of the cultural ambassador of India.

To celebrate the life of the Nobel Laureate, the school dedicates the third edition of TAGFEST'21 the Annual Inter-School Literary, Art, Drama and Technology Festival to the Bard of Bengal - Gurudev Rabindranath Tagore.

TAGFEST'21 is scheduled for Saturday, 30 October 2021. I would like to take this opportunity to invite the students of your school to be a part of this festival. The guidelines and the link to register for the literary festival are attached herewith. Kindly fill the registration form, for each event individually, latest by 05:00 pm on Sunday, 10 October 2021. A timely response will be much appreciated.

Warm Regards

Principal

TIME TO MIME

Class: V

Number of participants: 01

Duration: 1 minute 30 seconds

Mode: Live

Introduction-

Tagore has depicted freedom in many ways through his paintings, stories, and poems. In 'Time To Mime' participants are expected to depict their idea of freedom through a pantomime.

A pantomime is a form of drama in which performers communicate through movements and expressions of the face, not words, to show their performance.

Guidelines:

- The participant will perform a pantomime on the theme - 'Freedom to Me'.
- No dialogue or voice over/narration will be allowed in the performance.
- Pre-recorded background music may be used to enhance the performance.
- The participant will get 1 minute and 30 seconds for their performance. Exceeding the time limit will lead to negative marking.
- A warning bell will ring at the end of one minute.

You will earn points for:

- Creativity
- Facial expressions
- Costume and makeup
- Relevance to the theme
- Overall presentation
